

Scoring Rubric for Static Electricity Comic:

(4= Advanced Performance, 3=Average Performance, 2=Below Average Performance,
1=Beginning Writer Performance)

	Ideas & Content	Organization	Use of Pictures	Conventions
4	- clear main idea with supporting details that show a clear buildup and release of static electricity	- clear sequence of ideas	- uses 4 or more pictures to tell a complete story	- little editing needed - insignificant errors in legibility, spelling, capitalization, grammar, & punctuation
3	- ideas are clear and on topic with some supporting details to show a buildup and release of static electricity	- shows a sequence of ideas that generally make sense	- uses 3 different pictures to tell a complete story	- some editing needed - occasional errors in legibility, spelling, capitalization, grammar & punctuation
2	- simple statements/ ideas - some supporting details about buildup or release of static electricity	- shows some sequence of ideas - may contain unrelated details	- uses 2 different pictures to tell a complete story	- much editing needed - frequent errors in legibility, spelling, capitalization, grammar & punctuation
1	- off topic and confusing - includes little detail about the buildup or release of static electricity	- little or no sense of organization	- uses 1 or less pictures to tell a complete story	-extensive editing needed - continuous errors in legibility, spelling, capitalization, grammar & punctuation